Who we are...

The Federation of Canadian Artists (FCA) was founded in 1941 by a group of influential artists including Group of Seven luminary, Lawren Harris. The FCA is a not-for-profit organization that shares and promotes the passion and pleasure of the visual arts through exhibition, education and community. This prestigious organization provides many services that elevate artists and their art for all to appreciate. There are currently fourteen chapters across Canada with over 2800 members.

The Federation's Peace River Chapter, is a regional community of professional and semi-professional artists and art lovers. It's 34 supporting and active members reside in Dawson Creek, Fort St. John, Chetwynd, Tumbler Ridge, Beaverlodge, Grande Prairie and surrounding communities.

New members are always welcome.

About PRFCA

The Peace River Chapter of the FCA (PRFCA) organizes two local juried exhibitions annually, chapter meetings and workshops.

We provide networking opportunities and support for our artists in the BC and Alberta Peace Country outside and in addition to the programming that takes place from the FCA head office in Vancouver, BC

If you're looking to take part in Chapter activities, you must be a member with the Federation first.

There are several levels of membership:

Supporting- available to artists and art lovers wishing to support the group, attend PRFCA events and workshops.

Active- Successfully juried Active Members can submit to PRFCA chapter and National FCA shows. Must first be a supporting member.

Signature Status- (AFCA, SFCA)- recognizes outstanding quality of work. Signature Status applications are juried once a year. Must first be an active member.

Supporting Membership-

$35/yr paid to PRFCA and $65/yr to FCA

Open to everyone!

- Invitation to Monthly Zoom Meetings for socialization and learning opportunities
- Discounts on workshops
- Invitations to events and Opening Receptions
- Art Avenue Magazine subscription

Mimi Zhang-Mackie

Active and Signature Membership-

$35/yr paid to PRFCA and $95/yr to FCA

Applicants for active status undergo a jury process through the local Peace River Chapter or the parent organization (FCA) where they submit either their professional artists' website or a body of work for jurying. Most members are active members.

- Opportunity to submit for juried National and Chapter shows held at Peace Country area art galleries for prizes and awards
- Invitation to Monthly Zoom Meetings for socialization, artwork critiques and learning opportunities
- Gallery on the PRFCA website including a link to their website if applicable
- Discounts on Workshops and more.

Signature Membership applicants undergo a rigorous jurying process once per year.
